

Too Long

Ken Johnson – December 7, 2011

What am I waiting for? _____

The first test of Lordship is _____.

- The Lord told me to _____

The second test of Lordship is _____.

- What looms large ahead of me? _____
- What am I waiting on the Lord for? _____

Next Kurios: January 4, 2012

- All Kurios messages and notes are available at www.westsidechurch.org.
- Visit the Rock Bookstore, where you can locate Kurios resource material.

Too Long

Ken Johnson – December 7, 2011

What am I waiting for? _____

The first test of Lordship is _____.

- The Lord told me to _____

The second test of Lordship is _____.

- What looms large ahead of me? _____
- What am I waiting on the Lord for? _____

Next Kurios: January 4, 2012

- All Kurios messages and notes are available at www.westsidechurch.org.
- Visit the Rock Bookstore, where you can locate all Kurios resource material.

Life Group Discussion Questions

Too Long

December 7, 2011

1. To honestly call Jesus, Lord, you have to obey His word. Is there something God has spoken that He is asking you to obey?
2. Pastor Ken shared the story of Saul waiting for a word from the Lord. Was there a time in your life in which you've had to wait for a word from the Lord? What did you learn (or what are you learning) from that time?
3. God's timing is clearly not like our timing. When God "takes too long", what kind of attitude do you tend to have? When you remember and find assurance in His faithfulness, how does it change?
4. What kind of looming obstacles or giants do we face that make it hard to wait for the word?
5. Ken said that 'waiting' is the bread of an "obedience sandwich" -- Wait for the word, Believe/Obey the Word, Wait for the Word to Come to Pass. Where would you place yourself the sandwich right now?

Life Group Discussion Questions

Too Long

December 7, 2011

1. To honestly call Jesus, Lord, you have to obey His word. Is there something God has spoken that He is asking you to obey?
2. Pastor Ken shared the story of Saul waiting for a word from the Lord. Was there a time in your life in which you've had to wait for a word from the Lord? What did you learn (or what are you learning) from that time?
3. God's timing is clearly not like our timing. When God "takes too long", what kind of attitude do you tend to have? When you remember and find assurance in His faithfulness, how does it change?
4. What kind of looming obstacles or giants do we face that make it hard to wait for the word?
5. Ken said that 'waiting' is the bread of an "obedience sandwich" -- Wait for the word, Believe/Obey the Word, Wait for the Word to Come to Pass. Where would you place yourself the sandwich right now?

